Percentage changes for Saskatchewan, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland and Labrador reference the MLS® Home Price Index (HPI). While the province of Quebec uses the weighted residential average price, provided by QPAREB. All other provinces and territories are residential average price changes for their specific region.

CREA cautions that the average residential price is a useful figure only for establishing trends and comparisons over a period of time. It does not indicate an actual price for a home due to the wide election of housing available over the vast geographic area of the country.
